The show followed the Sunday comic strip of the same name closely. The comic strip started in Jan. 1934, while the radio show started in Nov. 1935 (in the middle of an ongoing story). The radio program lasted over 18 years.

In some areas the program was aired on weekdays, while in other locations (like New York City and Pittsburgh) it was aired on Sat. mornings. The dates listed are the Sunday comic strip dates, which were broadcast the preceeding week. For example, 11/3/35 was broadcast between 10/29 - 11/2/35. The episode and story titles between 11/3/35-3/15/42 are from the Hearst newspaper titles given in the Pgh Sun-Telegraph newspaper; both from the comic strips and the radio page summary. All other story titles were created by myself. All episode titles from 10/14/45 to 12/28/52 were from the comic strip itself.

Blank titles were those which were unreadable on the microfilm copy. NIL indicates that the strip had no title.

The highest known circulating radio episode at this date is #876.
